Thanks, Sean. I'll have it ready, but I'll give you control of the screen so you can scroll through and point to things you want.

Here is what I put together. This is intended to be used during the presentation and not necessarily distributed although it has releasable information. If they really need it, we can further vet it and send it out, it's just hydro is a hot topic right now so want to manage what goes out and to who in writing.

Cheers,

Sean Ramach
